PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

INDIGO GIRLS TO STRUM THEIR GUITARS FOR ROCHESTER AUDIENCE
– Greentopia | MUSIC Expands Series Year Round with its First Concert Performance
Featuring the Famous Folk Rock Duo –

Rochester, NY (December 4, 2012) – Greentopia | MUSIC and Dan Small Presents are thrilled to announce that the famous American folk rock music duo Indigo Girls will be performing in Rochester for the first time since 2002 on Saturday, March 2, 2013. “We are so excited,” says Lewis Stess, Co-Founder of Greentopia [the week-long sustainability event entering its third year from September 10-15], “to open our series with the Indigo Girls, who have championed environmental and human rights for decades.” The duo, Amy Ray and Emily Saliers, met in elementary school and began performing together as high school students in Decatur, Georgia, part of the Atlanta metropolitan area. For over 25 years they have entertained audiences and are one of the first bands to incorporate a recycling and public outreach program into their road tours. Their stand for the environment truly make them the perfect inaugural musical act for Greentopia | MUSIC year-round series.

About Indigo Girls

Indigo Girls Recording Career includes fourteen studio records, three live records and three greatest hits compilations: Seven gold records, four reaching platinum, one reaching double platinum, cumulative sales in excess of 12 million records, seven Grammy nominations, one win.

About Greentopia

Greentopia is Greater Rochester and the Finger Lakes' celebration of all things sustainable. The festival expanded in 2012 into a week-long interactive experience, with eco-friendly vendors and speakers who showcased new ideas and presented cutting-edge technologies. Greentopia is really a series of festivals within a larger curated and designed event. There are five distinct areas of programming: Greentopia | ECOFEST, Greentopia | MUSIC, Greentopia | FILM, Greentopia | Design and Greentopia | FUTURES Summit. Greentopia strives to empower people to create positive change on this planet we call home.
